

Assistant Project Manager / IT Specialist

Small entrepreneurial family-owned international holding company is seeking an Assistant Project Manager / IT Specialist to help manage IT operations of its international businesses.

Responsibilities:

- Suggest and implement IT and web based solutions for SME businesses and customers
- Manage clients and developers for web based development
- Assist in daily office and client site IT related operations

Desired Qualifications:

- IT related education and/or experience
- Problem solving and analytical skills
- Web development and/or maintenance experience is a plus
- Mature, dedicated, self-motivated and able to work under pressure
- Proficiency in spoken and written in English

Application procedure:

Please send current CV and salary expectations to hr@rglcompanies.com